

Orgatec 2006, Cologne

Supply of a special fabric belt for the creation of a facade space. For this purpose, a fabric belt with elastic properties and shape stability with regard to the edge length had to be used. The CENO Style elastic belt, a polyester fabric with elastomer content proved the best to be processed material. A total of more than 7500 running metres of belt was used here.

project data

Place of installation	Orgatec 2006, Cologne
Principal / client / general contractor	A & A Expo International
Material	CENO Style T-Lux 21, digitally printed